A Note from Our Associate Pastor

Most wonderful church family,

Can you feel the excitement in the air? Even though there might not be much of a cool autumn breeze just yet, there is definitely something going on around here. If you drove down West Home Avenue last Wednesday evening, you likely witnessed a parking lot full of cars outside our Memorial Fellowship Hall. Excited and joyfully, we kicked off our Wednesdays Together programs with great success. Children from preschool age up through 5th grade gathered to learn all about Baby Moses and begin their time with the Choristers and Cherubs music programs. Youth gathered in the fellowship hall classroom, adults met in the fellowship hall and everyone explored the first few chapters of Exodus, its stories and what those stories might mean for their lives. Afterwards, over 90 members of our church family enjoyed a delicious supper together and signed cards to be shared with some of our church members who are homebound or recovering from illness. When one of our littlest ones needed some medical attention, the fellowship hall was full of people to jump to his aid and make sure he and his mom were in good shape and even follow up with mom the next day (he is doing great this week!). This congregation most definitely knows how to take care of one another. It's exciting to be a part of something that wonderful, don't you think?

What a beautiful picture of God's Beloved Community! Our church family came together for fellowship, education and to offer care and hospitality to one another. Please consider joining us next week. Education and music for children begins at 4:30 p.m. for 4th and 5th grade students and at 5:00 p.m. for all ages. Bible Studies for youth and adults begin at 5:15 p.m. in the fellowship hall classroom and fellowship hall respectively. All ages will continue their study of Exodus and the story of Moses through October 18th, 2017.

We will celebrate World Communion Sunday in worship on Sunday, October 1st, and worship God together, celebrating the sacrament of the Lord's Supper with Christians all over the world. It is a day we will have the opportunity to take part in God's bountiful feast, where we are blessed and empowered for the wonderful work of bringing God's hospitality and peace to our community and to the whole world.

Lastly, I want to thank you for the privilege of serving alongside you in ministry; it has been and continues to be one of the greatest honors of my life. As the temperatures rise and fall, as activities start and schedules change, as folks take on new roles and responsibilities and as we all continue to follow where God is guiding us, I pray that you will continue to know the tremendous height and breadth and depth of God's great love for you. No matter where you are, no matter what you do, no matter what you say, God's love for you is great and bountiful. May you come to know that truth anew every day and allow that truth to guide your life.

May the peace of Christ be with you, now and evermore,

Jill

Jill Isola's request for dissolution of her associate pastor relationship so that she may begin her call at Northminster Presbyterian Church of Hickory, NC. Jill's last Sunday with us will be October 8.

CWS Blanket Offering

Church World Service (CWS) has worked for many decades with one goal: building a world where there is enough for all. In 2016, the total kits (hygiene, school, cleanup, baby care) and blankets distributed were 237,659 because of your generosity. Support of this offering ensures that newly arrived refugees, those affected by flooding or fires, homeless shelter guests and migrant workers all over our world have much needed supplies. This offering makes a direct impact in the lives of those recovering from disasters or facing poverty or displacement. FPC will receive the CWS Blanket Offering Sunday, October 8. We are the hands and feet of Christ. Please prayerfully consider making a gift. Checks should be made payable to First Presbyterian Church. Thank you for your support and dedication to special offerings.
