Dear Friends,

We will have a special day this coming Sunday, October 28. It is "Reformation Sunday," a time when we remember our great history from the Protestant Reformation of the 16th century, as well as our continuing service today to Jesus Christ, Savior and Lord. We will sing Martin Luther's great hymn, "A Mighty Fortress is Our God," as well as use a part of the Heidelberg Catechism for our affirmation of faith. Our children and youth choirs will also sing. I hope you will be present – and maybe bring a friend to join with us in worship!

We also use this Reformation Sunday to remember those who have gone before us. We will publicly remember the names of those who have passed away in the last twelve months, plus offer special prayers for all those who have lost loved ones. My own family has experienced a time of grief in the loss of Joye's mother in August. It is a great comfort to us all to know that our cherished memories of loved ones are appreciated and understood by caring friends. We will sing verses from the magnificent hymn, "For All the Saints." Its stirring words begin,

"For all the saints who from their labors rest, who thee by faith before the world confessed, thy name, O Jesus, be forever blest. Alleluia! Alleluia!"

Those who have gone before us are still great examples of love, faith, courage and sacrifice. They followed Jesus Christ in times of plenty and in want, in times of sorrow and of joy. They become for us role models of how we can and should live out our faith today. As the writer of the letter sermon to the Hebrews says it, "since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses . . . let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of our faith." (Hebrews 12.1-2) Our spiritual forebearers are still cheering us on from their "cloud" with God on high.

We will look back with thanksgiving and look forward with hope, and we will continue to serve our LORD together. Hoping to see you Sunday!

Your pastor,

Dr. Dan

We are looking forward to our big Halloween Carnival and hayride that will be on campus for Halloween. If any church members are interested in helping the program, you can host a booth, serve snacks, or help with set up or break down of the event. If interested please contact Lindsay Powell or Lauren Hardymon in the school office.
